

1- WE BELIEVE IN GOD AS A SUPREME BEING

God is the Supreme Being who created all that exists. His power and presence are revealed in the person of his Son Jesus, the Savior, and in the Holy Spirit, that guides the community of faith.

2- WE BELIEVE IN JESUS

We accept that the apostolic tradition of the Scriptures recognizes and accepts Jesus as decisive, definite and normative for humans' relation with God, their fellow men, family and society. Since He is the Savior and Mediator of Humanity, it is our commitment to continue fostering the convergence of all Christians through the one faith around the person of Jesus.

3- WE BELIEVE IN LIFE

We affirm that life is a gift of God. We foment that all human being value their life so they may be able to give the best to the country, family and society. We promote the preservation of life, and therefore promote a Christian consciousness in education.

4- WE BELIEVE IN THE FAMILY

We believe that the family is the essential social nucleus where the initial values that shape the person are developed. We commit ourselves to reinforce these values, from the Biblical foundation, that helps each human being to achieve the complete life and make it extensive to others.

5- WE BELIEVE IN THE SERVICE

We affirm our ecumenical Christian ideal and devote our effort to renew and reaffirm to our country, society, family and fellow men.

6- WE BELIEVE IN THE IDENTITY OF THE COMMUNITY OF CHRISTIAN FAITH

We affirm that the conviction of being Christians implies knowledge and obedience to the Word of God and, also, identification and commitment to the Church and to the person's particular Christian community.

7- WE BELIEVE IN INTEGRAL EDUCATION

Our Christian ecumenical position provides openness to society, science and technology, with an integral mentality, an attitude of respect and a moral conduct in armony with our values.

We foment the integral education of each person for carrying out his vocation in a responsible way and with a moral conduct and a productive performance in his community.

We are a community of higher education in an integral search of the truth, within an environment of freedom, through the encouragement of a mature academic life that guarantees the true freedom of investigation.

8- WE BELIEVE IN THE COMMITMENT WITH OUR FELLOW MEN

We believe that to be Christian it is to have and show a commitment to service to others based on love and not on the domination of society, but rather on promoting friendship, solidarity, tolerance and understanding to bridge human barrier.

9- WE BELIEVE IN THE STUDY OF CHRISTIAN RELIGION

We promote the study of the Christian religion as an academic discipline in which a fruitful dialogue with other academic disciplines is maintained.
